200 pounds or forty "birds" to a case. One of the most successful commis-sion merchants in Vegetableville is the firm of Mignot & Co. Mme. Mignot is the company. While her husband super-

When Mme, Mignot heard of the Eg-& Otis donation of ducks, she sent over fifty baskets of the same kind of water Family Unable to Explain Her Disses that she has supplied Delmonico with for years. These spicy bouquets, by way, make the third subscription from E. Mignot & Co.

PASSING OUT THE SACKS. as & Cole sent the clams, which were reserved for the sick poor, along with the hot-house rhubarb and delicate 100 poor families their daily bread, William Magee, of the Twenty-sixth Ward, Brooklyn, subscribed one load of white turnips.

The soup and table celery came from Mr. Dukes, of Harrison, N.J. He arrived at 90 Murray street just as the crowd was surging about the door, and volunteerd his services, and filled baskets and bags with a vim-

DEALING OUT THE PRODUCTERS. A dezen sugar-cured hams and a dezer shoulders of bacon came from C. F. who accompanied the appetizing gift with his compliments and a saw with which the provisions were reduced to toes from Messrs, Pope & Klie has en denated to "The Evening World's" od Commission. They came all the sy from the Yorkshire Hills, brown and oth and menty as nuts, the best "cookers" in the Winger market, twenty barrels of them, and worth $5 a barrel to any dealer in table luxuries on Mur-

A. Van Sielen, of Jamaica, the mush-Vigetables, but his salesman had to come the charge started, but like the Paris, had to put STOLE BECAUSE HE WAS HUNGRY Explanations of this sart have been Henry Schroeder Says He Has Eaten Traffs why we have to use so many polators, turnips and cubbages." Mr. Mergentime said. "Just us soon as the distribute every day in the week."

Good-hearted Emanuel Weill, of 143

Hudson street, writes to say he will distribute 500 pounds of boof to the past between the bours of I and 3 o'clock to day. This means people, ner for many poor people.

NELL NELSON. day. This means a hearty Sunday din-

FOR THE SICK BABIES' FUND.

First Contribution of the Year from a Party of Little Workers.

The first contribution of the new year to the "Eventur World's" Sick Babies Fund has come from a party of little folks who gave a most enjoyable enterialisment the other cysning at the manner of Miss Johnson at 216 Sevenith avenue.

It is a good big contribution, too, 58 in all, and the beys and girls who worked hard to give their trients a treat may well be proud of their specess.

Those wise took part in the entertainment were also Coch y-centuargh, Miss Aliquian Bradetreet, Miss Adme Swartz, Miss Ithe Bradetreet, Miss Adme Swartz, Miss Adme Swartz, Miss Ithe Bradetreet, Miss Adme Swartz, Miss Ithe Bradetreet, Miss Adme Swartz, Miss Ithe Bradetreet, Miss Adme Swartz, Miss Adme

De polic kontista finadelment. 1991 - 1914 Michael - Arthur Bisses and Laurice intends the cress-farm down in Virginia She Had Been Mysteriously Miss-she directs the business at 91 Murray ing for Just One Week.

The relatives also secured the services of private detectives.

Mr. Arndistein's father was a rich banker in Berlin. While travelling in Holland, Mr. Arndistein met and fell in love with her.

THEIR PLACES SOUGHT FOR.

Secretary Tompkins Says Dispensary Doctors Will Not Be Missed. to-day that the doctors who had resigned

We have plenty of applications from We have plenty of applications from people who want their places, he asserted, and the vacancies will be filled very shortly and very satisfactorily. There has been trouble between the trustees and the physicians of the disposary for many months, Awhile ago, Drs. Herbert T. Knapp. H. D. Schenck, George W. Bulmer, Harrison Willis, A. J. Palmer and F. H. Lutze all resigned, but the only resignation accepted was that of Dr. Knapp.

Yesterday the other doctors received his resignations and demanded that they be accepted at once. All of the physicians interested are specialists, and they claim that the hospital authorities cannot replace them.

Will Solve for Renders. Every New Yorker has a desire at some time in life to put a little more reasure in the vaults for a rainy day and a few nickels for days when it

The first of the f

THESE WOMEN HAVE MILLIONS.

Sons of the Revolution, Rev. Talbet W. $125,000, daily income. $42; income tax, Hourbon flug cartled by the French of fleers in the American flug and the flug of Bunker Hill.

The Colonial Dames of America, the Aztec Society, the Society of the War of 1812, the Society of Colonial wars, the Daughters of the Revolution and the Colonial Dames of the State have been invited to Join in the service.

Talbut Olymbant, David Banks, Jr. Hanyer Clarkson, E. W. Crosby, J. L. Delafield, John Du Fais, R. H. Gallatin, F. E. Haight, John Howe, R. E. L. S. Hoppin, Oswaid Jackson, E. C. Larned, P. L. Livingston, Howard Marshall, J. B. Miller, Newbold Morris, R. K. Prentice, J. V. S. L. Pruyn, T. J. O. Rhinesinder, E. L. Short, H. Y. T. Smith, Wyllys Terry, P. G. Thebaud, F. C. Thomas, A. R. Thompson, Jr. J. T. Wainwright, F. S. Woodruff and G. N. Gardine will be the Aisle Committee.

The Sons will have their twelfth Washington's Hirthday dinner at Delmonico's Thursday evening. President F. S. Tallmadge will be too standard. F. C. Thomas, A. R. Thompson, Jr. J. T. Wainwright, F. S. Woodruff and G. N. Gardine will be the Aisle Committee.

The Sons will have their twelfth Washington's Hirthday dinner at Delmonico's Thursday evening. President F. S. Tallmadge will be too standard. F. C. Thomas, A. R. Thompson, Jr. J. T. Wainwright, F. S. Woodruff and G. N. Gardine will be the Aisle Committee.

Thinks SHE ELOPED.

Hurger's Wife, Ferniture, $200 and Their Boarder Missing.

Bernhardt Burger, of 59 South Second street, was in the Lee Avenue Court.

MRS. JAMES P. KERNOCHAN, worth $1,500,000, inherited from the Lorillards, Annual income, $125,000; daily income, $250,000, inherited from the Lorillards, Annual income, $150,000, inhe street, was in the Lee Avenue Court, Williamsburg, to-day, and complained that his wife Carolina had robbed and deserted him.

HEIRS OF MRS. A. T. STEWART.

Burger is thirty-five years old, and supports himself by peddling goods throughout Long Island. His home on South Second street was a fairly happy one, but about two weeks ago, his wife, at his request, took in a boarder, so that they would be better able to stand the hard times.

During the last ten days furger has been out of the city on a business trip, and when he returned hast night he found that his wife had descrited him, taking $200 in cash, all the furniture, and, he believes, the boarder as well.

MRS, MARIA L. WADSWORTH, wife of James G. Wadsworth, worth $1,500,000. Mrs. Wadsworth's fortune came to her at the death of her father, William R. Travers, who made a great deal of money in Wall street. Annual income, $75,000; daily income. $205; income tax, $1,500.

Leaned from His Car and Struck
Head Against a Pole.

NEWARK, N. J. Feb. 17.—Henry Kemp, a motorman employed by the Consolidated Traction Company, was dangerously injured last night.

MRS. WINTHROP WOULD PAY $2,500.
MRS. CATHERINE WINTHROP, wife of Robert Winthrop, banker, worth $2,500,000. Her father, Moses Taylor, bequeathed his money to Mrs. Winthrop, He made a tremendous fortune in sugar, shipping, railroads, banking, gas and coal companies. Annual income, $125,000;
daily income, $342; income tax, $2,500.
MRS. SARAH WILLIAMS, worth
$1,500,000; inherited from George Law, who made his money in contracting, building railroads, &c. Annual income,
$15,000; daily income, $205; income tax,
$1,500.

THIS FROM REAL ESTATE. THIS FROM REAL ESTATE.

MRS. HARRY LE GRAND CANNON, worth $1,500,000. Mrs. Cannon was Elizabeth M. Thompson, of Detroit. She inherited her fortune from relatives who made it in real estate. Annual income, $75,000; daily income. $2%; income tax, $1,500.

MISS LAURA R. CONKLING, worth $1,500,000, left to her by Miss Catherine Wolfe. The money was made by John $1,500,000, left to her by Miss Catherine Wolfe. The money was made by John D. Wolfe in importing hardware and speculating in real estate. Annual income, $75,000; daily income, $205; income tax, $1,500.

come, $75,000; daily income, $206; income tax, $1,500.

MRS. SUSAN J. DANNANT, worth $2,000,000; inherited from bavid Jones, the brewer, who left a great estate. Annual income, $100,000; daily income, $273; neome tax, $2,000.

MRS. ANNA F. WRIGHT, worth $1,10,000; inherited from George Law. Anual income, $75,000; daily income, $206; ncome tax, $1,500. FROM DRY GOODS THIS.

Police Court this morning, charged with stealing a box of groceries, valued at 54. from James E. Zarr. of 2479 Eighth avenue.

Schraeder admitted taking the groceries and saal he stole them because he was a feature and had nothing to eat for two dress of the stole of the stole a great dead of money in an interest in its arised of condensed milk factories, in banking and in railroads. Joseph Milbank is a director in the Chicago, Milbank (Quicksilver Mining Company, &c. Lank, Quicksilver Mining Company, &c. Annual income, $320,000; daily income tax $3,000.

EDWIN D. MORGAN, JR.—Worth 5,000,000; inherited from his uncle, Edwin D. Morgan, who left him nearly all his fortune. The elder Morgan made his money in importing sugar, tea and coffee in bonds and finally in banking. Annual income, $250,000; daily income, fast, income tax $5,000.

THE MORTIMER ESTATES.

THE MORTIMER ESTATES.

THE MORTIMER ESTATES.

THE MORTIMER ESTATES.

RICHARD MORTIMER—Worth $2,500.
303, inherited from Richard Mortimer, who made his money by investing in real estate the profits he made by importing merchandise. Annual income, $125,080; daily income, $342; income tax, $2,500.

STANLEY MORTIMER—Worth $2,500,300; ipherited from Richard Mortimer, Annual income $125,000; daily income, $342; income tax, $2,500.

WILLIJAM YATES MORTIMER—Worth $2,500,000; inherited from Richard Mortimer, Annual income, $125,000; daily income, $342; income tax, $2,500.

WILLIJAM YATES MORTIMER—Worth $2,500,000; inherited from Richard Mortimer, Annual income, $125,000; daily income, $342; income tax, $2,500.

WIRLIJAM YATES MORTIMER—Worth $2,500,000.

NEWBOLLD MORRIS—Worth $2,500,000.

Acquired his fortune by inheritance. It was made originally importing metals and investments in real estate. Annual income, $125,000; daily income, $342; income tax, $2,500.

Wilkin have been defined by the history of the street, saw the men struggling, and started across to separate them.

Wright was thrown upon the floor and beaten.

When he escaped from his assailan's he left the saloon, and, it is alieseed, waited on the sidewalk in the vicinity for some of the party to come out.

A few minutes later Rog-rs left the saloon, and started to go home. He only walked a few steps, when, it is salon and started to go home. He only walked a few steps, when, it is said, the physician spirang upon him with a knife in his hand, and buried the blade in Rogers's head.

Wright broke at the profits and on the sidewalk in the vicinity for some of the party to come out.

A few minutes later Rog-rs left the saloon, and, it is alieseed, walted on the sidewalk in the vicinity for some of the party to come of the party to come

JOSEPH F. LOUBAT—Worth $2,000,000. Inherited from his father, who was a tea merchant. The elder Loubat invested his accumulations in New York real estate that has since risen greatly in value. Annual income, $100,000; daily income, $173; income tax. $2,000. JEREMIAH P. ROBINSON—Worth $1,500,000. His father, of the same name, left the money to him. Robinson, sr., made the money in dry-goods and in the rise of value of real estate. Annual income, $75,000; daily income, $265; income tax.

THE BIG RHINELANDER ESTATE. THE BIG RHINELANDER ESTATE.

THE RHINELANDER ESTATE—
Worth $10,000,000. Divided among half a dozen heirs. Made in the advance of real estate. Annual income, $500,000; daily income, $1,599; income tax, $10,000.

HENRY A. C. TAYLOR—Worth $7,500,000; inherited from his father, Moses Taylor. Annual income, $375,000; daily income, $1,027; lincome tax, $7,500,GEORGE C. TAYLOR—Worth $7,500,000; inherited from Moses Taylor. Annual income, $375,000; daily income, $1,027; income tax, $7,500.

A WALL STREET REQUEST

A WALL STREET BEQUEST.

PRATT ESTATE, OF BROOKLYN. B1.250.000; daily income, $3.424; income; tax, $25.000; daily income, $3.424; income; ALBERT H. GALLATIN— Worth $2.600,000. Made in banking and real estate; inherited from Albert R. Gallatin. Annual income, $100.000; daily income, $273; income tax $2.000.

REV. CHARLES F. HOFFMAN—Worth $5.000,000 inherited from his father, Samuel V. Hoffman. Made in real estate, which has descended in the family through several generations. Annual income, $250,000; daily income, $884; income tax, $5.000.

VERY REV. EUGENE F. HOFFMAN—Worth $5.000.000; inherited from his father, Samuel V. Hoffman. Annual income, $250,000; daily income, $884; income tax, $5.000.

RICH MRS. BOREEL.

Mrs. Minnle Powell Died from the higher powell, wenty-nine years old, wife of a coachman living in a coachmone at 12 East Fifty-second street, died this morning from injuries in a fall yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Powell went to the hatchway alove thesiable to call her husband, lost her balance and fell through. Dr. Scrully, a neighboring physician, was called and attended to her injuries, which consisted of a fractured spine for the custody of extreme family of a fractured spine.

Mrs. Mary A. Tupper has been released, at Wilton, Me., from the custody of extreme family of all the people whom the income spine.

Mrs. Mary A. Tupper has been released, at Wilton, Me., from the custody of extreme family of a fractured spine.

Mrs. Mary A. Tupper has been released, at Wilton, Me., from the custody of extreme family of a fractured spine.

Mrs. Mary A. Tupper has been released at Wilton, Me., from the custody of extreme family of a fractured spine.

Mrs. Mary A. Tupper has been released at Wilton, Me., from the custody of extreme family of a fractured spine.

Mrs. Mary A. Tupper has been released at Wilton, Me., from the custody of extreme family of a fractured spine.

Mrs. Mary A. Tupper has been released at Wilton, Me., from the custody of extreme family of a few people in the finite family of the fortunes. Whose Portunes Have fortunes, who have had money poured for the custody of extreme family of a few people in the finite family of the fortunes, who have had money poured for the custody of extreme family of a few people in the finite family of a few people in the finite family of the fortunes as a first of the finite family of the fortunes would not contain the names of all suctomes. $2,500.

Mrs. Mary A. Tupper has been released, at Wilton, Me., from the Asia family of the fortunes and fall the finite family of the finite family of the fortunes and fall the family of the fortunes and fall the family of the family of the fortunes and fall the family of the fortunes and fall the family of the family of the family of

HON. EX-SPEAKER NOYES.

The Great Senator and Representative Recommends Dr. Greene's Nervura Blood and Nerve Remedy to the Weak. Nervous and Ailing. Prepare Yourself for Spring.

ROBABLY more deleads upon the character of the recommendation than on anything eire. If a person you personally those to sill you that the property of the recommendation than on a severe rheumatism, and experience from a severe rheumatism, an blood and nerve remedy, has done for him, and advises you to take it and get well, if you are sick, weak, nervous, aleepless, debilitated or run down in health. He assures you that it willing that the best possible use abould to the state of the state cured him and he is positive that it will cure made of this note to bring the matter to the mind and decided to make the appointment.

HON. EX-SPEAKER CHARLES J. NOYES.

Prof. O'Keefe, the present organist, appointed by the late Rev. Father Corrigan, resigned several weeks ago. Last night he was asked to withdraw his resignation, and to accept the place permanently. He did so, and has already begun active preparations for Easter.

Prof. De Granville was the organist for this church for over fifteen years, and is considered a first-class musician, but for some reason was forced to resign. "No citizen of Boston stands higher in public estimation than he. A lawyer of the greates eminence and highest ability, he is a born leader of men. In public life for nearly half a cen-tury, he is a representative citizen, one of the A CAR FOR STEELE MACKAYE. most popular and best known men in the United

> "He was elected a Senator and was eight the people that he was five different year elected Speaker of the House of Represents tives. Gov. Long made him a Justice, knowing that he is of nequestioned integrity, superior ability and great conscientiousness. A man of majestic brain, he is a great statesman and has few equals as an orator. He was at one time a candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, and he cominated Alger for President, in the National

Such is the eminence and standing of the ger tention of others suffering as I was.

high standing and eminent reputation to high standing and eminent reputation to indorsement of the wonderful curative virtue of the great medical discovery. Dr. Greez Nervura blood and nerve remedy, he is provin himself a benefactor to those who are sid weak, nervous and alling. It is a fact that in Greene's Nervura blood and, nerve remaining the side of t for the changes of spring. It is purely table and harmless.

City, its discoverer, is our most successful sp cialist in curing pervous and chronic dise in This Sunday World Feature.

TELLING A FUNNY STORY.

iadies begin to tell stories, and Charley's nunt becomes alarmed. "I hope they'll be careful what they say before me," be careful what they say before me," turne, and there are many pretty five. The length of the skirt varies. It

Final Cut Price Sale

Entire Winter Stock.

MUST BE SOLD BY MARCH 1ST.
Final Cut Price Sale.
Entire Winter Stock must be sold by March 1.

Discreption of funny stories told by well-known New York women. They have all been carefully selected (the stories as well as the ladies) and will prove very entertaining. No husband need he slate-but never mind that. The selections show beyond question that a woman can tell a good story just as well as a man can.

A VEST-POCKET remedy—Dr. Pieres Piessant Fellets. Fun

RECEPTION AT ST. MARK'S.

in the New Building.

The Board of Managers and the Ladies' Auxiliary Society of St. Mark's Hospital have made great preparations for the opening reception and exercises in the new building of St. Mark's Hos-

CHARLES J. NOTES,

Hon. Ex-Speaker Noyes is and always will a boon to his fellow men, and in thus giving advice to the suffering, and the weight of h marvellous medicine to restore health a

Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th Street, New Yor

pear in The Sunday World.

WOMEN WHO FENCE.

EVANSVILLE, ind., Feb. 17.—E. W. Kent was arrested last night for having obtained money on a forged check. Kent is wanted at Cynthiana, Ky.; Richmund, Va., and Covington, Ky. Checks for over $10,000 were found on him.

Noah Davis to Deliver an Address in the new building of St. Mark's Hospital, 177 Second avenue, from 3 to 6 this afternoon. The programme allows an hour for inspection of the new building, opening ceremonies from 4 to 5 o'clock, including an address by exJudge Noah Davis, and tea and refreshments by Sherry, from 5 to 6 o'clock.

By Leonard Weber is the President of the Board of Managers; Jacob W. Mack, Vice-President; D. McLean Shaw, Treasurer; H. Charles Euler, Secretary: M. M. Russenan, Secretary of the Building and Home Committee, and Drs. Carl Beck, H. J. Boldt, C. A. Von Ramdohr and Eugene Lewis members of the Board. Mrs. Leonard Weber, Mrs. F. Milleman, Mrs. Simon Borg, Mrs. W. F. Milleman, Mrs. Simon Borg, Mrs. W. F. Milleman, Mrs. Simon Borg, Mrs. W. F. Millendorf and Miss A, Boldt represent the Ladies' Auxiliary Society.

GIRLS WHO FENCE.

The makers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Redy are willing to risk this offer: "I can't cure your Catarrh, no matter your case is, we'll pay you $500."

MRS. ARNOTSTEIN RETURNS

appearance and Absence.

this morning at 10 o'clock. She is the wife of Moses Arndistein, a wealthy retired merchant, and left her home, 342 tired merchant deviction and left her home, 342 tired merchant, and left her home, 342 tired merc erty which her husband contemplated purchasing, at Madison avenue and One Hundred and Ninth street. From that time nothing has been seen of her until she returned to-day.

When she falled to return her husband made inquiries and found she had looked at the property in question, and there all trace of her was lost.

She was wearing some $2,000 worth of jewelry, which led her family to believe she had become the victim of foul play. Her disappearance was reported to Capt. Pickett at the East Eighty-eighth street station, and a general alarm sent out.

in love with her.

Ills intrace opposed the match, because of the difference in religious beliefs of the two families.

In consequence of their marriage the young man was disinherited. He came here with his bride and made a fortune for himself.

They have five children, three sons and two daughters.

Their married life has

They have five chiming.

They have five chiming.

They married lite in two daughters. Their married lite and the family are at n loss to account for her myself;

Secretary George V. Tompkins, of the Eastern District Homoeopathic Dispen- that his wife Carolina had robbed and ciry, on South Third street, Williams-

ROBBED AT A PARTY. Two Men Charged with Stealing

Smith's Lobsters and Money. Henry Rafferty, seventeen years old, of 44 Monroe street, and Patrick Mc-Dermott, twenty years old, of 36 Henry street, were remanded by Justice Hogan the Essex Market Police Court today. Last night Mrs. Anderson gave a day. Last night Mrs. Anderson gave a party in her rooms at 47 Hamilton street, a tenement-house, known as the "Ship." About 2 o'clock this morning John H. Smith, a lobster peddier, of 14 Hamilton street, came along, loudly shouting: "Lobsters." He was called into Mrs. Anderson's rooms, and, it is alleged, robbed of all his lobsters and $2 in money. Smith shouted lustily for the police, and was brutally beaten.

Policeman Heaphy, of the Madison street staflon, caught the two prisoners running from the place, and arrested them. Smith blentified them as the men who had robbed him. They denied the charge.

Nothing in Two Days. Henry Schroeder, twenty years old, gracery clerk, who has no home, was held in $500 ball for trial in Harlem "The Evening Police Court this morning, charged with

IN WASHINGTON'S HONOR.

Sons of the Revolution to Assemble in Collegiate Reformed Church. Rev. Edward B. Coe will conduct the fourth annual service of the Sons of the Revolution in honor of Washing ton's 1624 birthday, 10-morrow, at o'clock, at the Collegiate Reformed nue and Forty-eighth street. Rev.

Bernhardt Burger, of 59 South Second

MOTORMAN BADLY HURT.

HOW TO GET RICH.

Puzzle that the Sunday World vested a great deal of money in real estate. Annual income, $75,650; daily income, $205; lincome tax, $1,500.

JOHN H. LIVINING, worth $1,500,000, inherited from his father, Nicholas Luning, of San Francisco, who made it in real estate and banking. Annual income, $75, tate and banking. Annual income, $75, egg; daily income tax, $1,500.

Accused of Lying in Wait to Stab eee, daily income, $205; income tax, $1,500. FROM STANDARD OIL.

MRS. CAROLINE L. MACY, worth $2,00,000, inherited from her husband, Josiah Macy, who was a magnate in the Standard Oil Company. Annual Income, $100,000; daily income, $273; income tax, $2,000. FILLIOTT ZEOROWSKI-Worth $2,500,000; made in real estate, of which Mr. Zborowski owns some very valuable pieces; annual income, $125,000; daily income $42; income tax, $2,500. FROM CONDENSED MILK. Midnight Brooklyn Saloon Row William G. Wright, a physician, forty

James H. Rogers.

May Result in a Tragedy.

O'KEEFE TO BE ORGANIST.

Prof. De Granville Will Not Be Appointed to Corrigan's Church. Prof. De Granville will not be reapointed organist of the Church of Our

Fe Road Offers to Take Hin

*10.°°

SUITS,

AT 10.

Both Stores Open This Evening Until 10 o'Clock BIERMANHEIDELBERG&Q

Herald Building, Broadway, Bivey and Ann St. Just Below 29th St.

to California.

ondition remained unchanged up to ar early hour this morning. His physicians, however, will not express any opinion

FROM CONDENSED MILK. years old, of 360 Quincy street, Brooklyn, JOSEP it MILBANK—Worth $3,000,000; therited two-thirds of his money from is father, Jeremiah Milbank, who made great deal of money in an interest in order's condensed milk factories, in anking and in rathroads Joseph Milbank is a director in the Chicago, Milbank is a director in the Chicago. was held by Justice Connolly, in the Gates Avenue Police Court, to-day, to hands in the direction of his hip pocket, but Freel was too quick for him and twisted the knife out of his hand. The physician did not have a revolver. With the assistance of Policeman Boyle the prisoner was taken to the Gates avenue police station and locked up.

Rogers was removed to the Homoeopathic Hospital. The physicians say he is badly injured and may die.

In court to-day Dr. Wright refused to make any statement except to deny that he had assaulted Rogers without provocation. When the case came up for trial, he said, he would be able to establish his innocence. HOWELL OSBORNE'S LIMITATIONS. HOWELL OSBORNE'S LIMITATIONS.
HOWELL OSBORNE-Worth $1,500,000.
Descended to him through his mother his father, C. J. Osborne, who was one of Jay Gould's brokers. Howell Osborne cannot touch the principal of his fortune, which is in the hands of trustees, but he spends the interest with all due expedition. Annual income, $75,000; daily income, $206; income tax, $1,500.
JOSEPH F. LOUBAT-Worth $2,000,000.
Inherited from his father, who was a

Lady of Grace, Hoboken, as was expected. Father Kelly announced that fact to the members of the choir at their meeting last night. The announcement of De Granville's The announcement of De Granville's reappointment several weeks ago caused great dissatisfaction among the parishioners of the church. It was at their request that Father Kelly changed his mind and decided to make the appointment

A WALL STREET BEQUEST.

REVERDY J. TRAVERS—Worth $1,500,000, bequeathed to him by his father, William R. Travers, who made his money in Wall street. Annual income, $75,000; daily income, $205; income tax, $1,500.

WILLIAM R. TRAVERS, JR.—Worth $1,500,000; from his father, William R. Travers. Annual income, $75,000; daily income, $205; income tax, $1,500.

JOHN G. WENDELL, worth $1,500.000; from his father, D. Wendell. The Wendells are related to the Astors. John D. Wendell made his money in the rise and improvement of real estate. Annual income, $75,000; daily income, $205; income tax, $1,500.

CLARENCE WARDEN—Worth $1,500,000; from his father, Francis Warden, who was a leading member in the firm of A. T. Stewart & Co. He was the "buyer" for the firm in France, going abroad and selecting the silks, laces, carpets and shawis that the firm imported. Annual income, $225,000; daily income, $366; income tax, $4,500.

EDWARD WARDEN—Worth $4,500,000; inherited from his father, Francis Warden, Annual income, $225,000; daily income, $818; income tax, $4,500.

PRATT ESTATE, OF BROOKLYN. (By Associated Press.) CHICAGO, Feb. 17.—Steele Mackaye's

however, will not express any opinion as to his chances for recovery. The chief trouble is the inability of his stomach to retain nourishment, and his condition is described as starving to death.

The Santa Fe Railroad has tendered Mrs. Mackaye a special car to convey Mr. Mackaye to California, where his physicians believe that he can recover. Mrs. Mackaye thinks that her husband will be strong enough in a few days to undertake the journey. ESTATE OF CHARLES PRATT, of Brooklyn-Worth $25,000,000; divided mong eight heirs. Made in oil refining nong eight heirs. Made in the income, ad transportation. Annual income, 250,000; daily income, $3,424; income and cured.

WOMEN CAN TELL STORIES.

They're guaranteed to give satisfaction or your money is returned.